

Plano Realtor elected president...

Last month, Alex Johnson, President and CEO, KW Commercial/Laurex Realty Advisors, was elected 2010 president of the North Texas CCIM Chapter of the CCIM Institute, the governing body of the largest commercial real estate association in the world and an affiliate of the National Association of REALTORS®.

Johnson specializes in retail and office investments, leas-

Alex Johnson was recently elected president of the North Texas chapter of the CCIM Institute.

Photo courtesy Alex Johnson

ing, and tenant representation. He has leadership experience at the national, state and local level with organizations such as the CCIM Institute, KW Commercial, Texas Association of Realtors, and North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors.

Johnson has also graduated from leadership programs with Leadership Plano, Leadership Dallas, the Greater Dallas Association of Realtors Leadership program, and the CCIM Leadership Academy.

An active member of the community, Johnson has held board positions with numerous nonprofits, charities and city boards, commissions and task forces. He has been honored by the CCIM Institute as a 2008 Rising Star and the 2007 Award of Excellence, and he was honored by the Dallas Business Journal as a Top Minority Business Owner and Rotary International as a Paul Harris Fellow.